

NOVA KID

5 BREVI STORIE IN INGLESE PER BAMBINI

Once upon a time, there was a tiny seed named Sam. Sam lived in a small hole in the ground. Sam loved the cozy home but wanted to see the world outside.

One sunny day, a gentle wind whispered to Sam, «It's time to grow, little seed. Plant yourself and become a strong plant.»

Excited, Sam rolled out of the hole and found a soft spot in the soil. Sam nestled in and said, «Goodbye, dear home. I will miss you, but I'm ready to grow!»

Day after day, Sam felt the warm sun and cool rain. The tiny seed began to sprout, pushing a little green shoot upwards.

As Sam grew taller, it saw other plants nearby. There were beautiful flowers with bright colors and tall trees with branches stretching high. Sam realized it wasn't alone, and the garden was full of friendly neighbors.

One day, a kind ladybug named Lily landed on Sam's leaves. «Hello, little seed,» said Lily. «You have grown into a lovely plant. Keep reaching for the sky, and one day you'll bloom into a beautiful flower!»

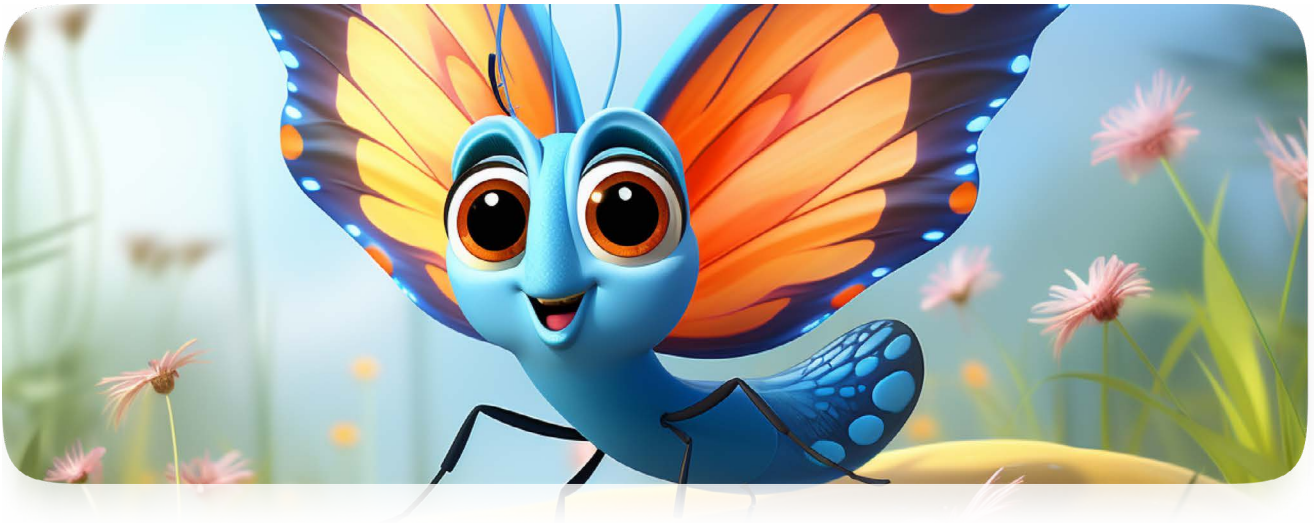

Sam listened to Lily's words and felt encouraged. It stretched its leaves, enjoyed the warm sunshine, and took in the fresh air.

Time passed, and Sam's green shoot transformed into a pretty flower. It had colorful petals and a lovely scent that attracted bees and butterflies.

Sam was proud of its journey and how it had become a beautiful flower. It knew that every little seed had the potential to grow into something amazing.

The End

The Adventurous Butterfly

Once upon a time, there was a little butterfly named Bella. Bella lived in a colorful garden filled with beautiful flowers and friendly insects. Bella loved fluttering around and discovering new things.

One sunny morning, Bella woke up feeling very curious. «I wonder what's beyond the garden?» Bella thought. So, Bella decided to go on an adventure.

Bella flew and flew, passing by tall trees and gliding over small streams. Along the way, Bella met a wise old ladybug named Lucy. Lucy told Bella about the big world outside the garden.

Excited, Bella continued her journey. Suddenly, Bella saw a graceful bird flying high in the sky. The bird landed on a branch and greeted Bella with a chirp. «Hello, little butterfly! I used to be just like you. If you explore and believe in yourself, you'll discover amazing things!» it said.

Bella felt inspired and kept going. After a while, Bella found a colorful flower and perched on it. Bella sipped nectar from the flower and felt energized. Then, Bella fluttered her delicate wings and continued her exploration.

Days passed, and Bella encountered many new friends along the way. Bella saw bees buzzing happily, squirrels playing in the trees, and even a friendly bunny hopping through the meadow. Bella realized that the world was full of wonders.

From that day on, Bella never stopped exploring. Bella discovered new flowers, tasted delicious fruits, and brought joy to everyone who saw her colorful wings.

The End

The Three Little Pigs

The second little pig built his house with sticks. It was a bit stronger than the straw house. The pig thought “In this house I will be safe”.

The third little pig worked hard to build his house with bricks. It took a long time, and I thought “In this house I will be safe”.

One day, a big bad wolf came to the first little pig’s house. He said, «I’ll huff and I’ll puff and I’ll blow your house down!» And he blew the straw house down. The little pig ran to the second little pig’s house.

The wolf went to the second little pig’s house and huffed and puffed. He said, «I’ll huff and I’ll puff and I’ll blow your house down!» And he blew the stick house down. The two little pigs ran to the third little pig’s house.

The wolf went to the third little pig’s house and he said, «I’ll huff and I’ll puff and I’ll blow your house down!» But he couldn’t blow the strong brick house down. The three little pigs were safe inside. The wolf tried to trick the pigs, but they were clever. They stayed inside the brick house and the wolf couldn’t get in.

The big bad wolf gave up and went away. The three little pigs were happy and safe in their strong brick house. They realized that hard work and building something strong was important. From that day on, they lived happily ever after.

The End

Aladdin and the Magic Lamp

Once upon a time, there was a young boy named Aladdin. He lived in a faraway city. Aladdin was kind-hearted and loved to explore. One day, while Aladdin was walking in the market, an old man approached him. The old man said, «I have a special lamp that can grant wishes. Would you like to have it?»

Curious, Aladdin exchanged his old lamp for the new one. As he rubbed the lamp, a magical genie appeared before him. The genie said, «I am here to grant you three wishes. Choose wisely!» Aladdin couldn't believe his luck.

For his first wish, Aladdin asked for a big feast to share with his hungry friends. In an instant, a table full of delicious food appeared before them. For his second wish, Aladdin wished for a beautiful palace to live in. The genie waved his hands, and a magnificent palace appeared with gardens and treasures.

Aladdin realized he had one more wish left. He used his last wish to set the genie free.

The grateful genie thanked Aladdin for his kindness. Aladdin and the genie became good friends. Aladdin continued to explore the world and help those in need. With his kind heart and the magic lamp, he brought happiness to many people.

And so, Aladdin lived happily ever after, knowing that true happiness comes from kindness and helping others.

Once upon a time, there was a little boy named Jack. Jack lived with his mother in a small cottage. They were very poor and had little food to eat. One day, Jack's mother gave him a special bean. She said, «This is a magic bean. Plant it in the ground, and something amazing may happen.»

Curious, Jack went to the garden and dug a small hole. He gently placed the bean in the hole and covered it with soil. He watered it every day, hoping for something magical to happen. To Jack's surprise, the next morning, he woke up to find a tall beanstalk reaching up into the sky. It was a magical beanstalk!

Excited, Jack began to climb the beanstalk. Higher and higher he went, until he reached a magnificent castle in the clouds. Inside the castle, Jack found a giant. The giant was friendly and kind. He shared his treasures with Jack and gave him a bag of golden coins.

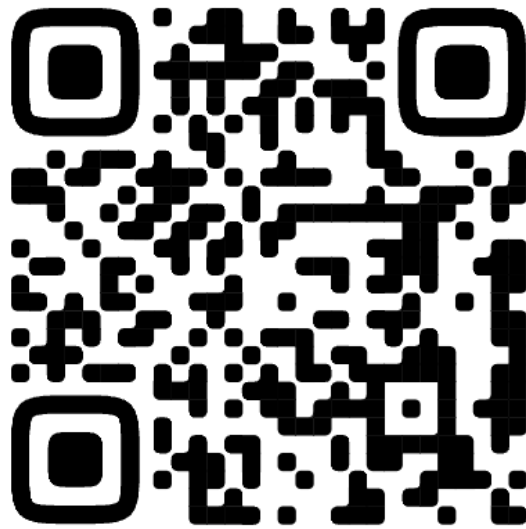

Jack was very happy. He thanked the giant and climbed back down the beanstalk. With the bag of golden coins Jack and his mother were happy and had everything they needed. From that day on, Jack and his mother lived happily, thanks to the magic bean and the kind giant.

Remember, sometimes magical things can happen when you least expect them.

The End

NOVAKID

INGLESE ONLINE PER BAMBINI DAI 4 AI 12 ANNI

www.novakid.it

lezione di prova gratuita